How Utterly Ridiculous

it is to say that "Cunningham is a high price undertaker!"

Regardless of wealth, everyone shares alike in the same efficient service that has characterized "Cunningham" for 25 years. The price of the casket is entirely a matter of your own choice.

—and the wonderful chapel with the services of an organist is free to all!

Putting More Taxes on the Automobile

The original cost of an automobile is but a small part of the expense of owning one and operating it in Chicago. Before you take the paper off the wind shield you must buy your state license, a matter of from $12 to $20. Then comes the city license which requires at least ten fat bucks to set you right with the collector, and then the police come in on your peace and quiet with a demand for a dollar more for your identification card and after giving the photographer a dollar for misrepresenting you by a thumb nail picture you may try a go on the boulevards. But every sensible person will carry insurance and, together with the fire, theft, accident, personal and property damage, you are set back from $150 to $300 per annum. The personal property assessor gets you for at least a $1,000 on valuation, and it is scaled to $500 by the half value plan, but you will pay fully $50 state, county and city tax on that. Now comes our dear old Uncle Sammy who says he must have at least fifty cents per horse power tax to help pay for that excursion to Germany. Figure it all up, gentle reader, I am afraid to lest I go over to the garage and burn up my flivver to save expenses.

Criminals Well Cared For

If the State of Illinois, or in fact the United States were to be as solicitous for the welfare of its orderly citizens as they are for the criminals we would have a wonderful government. So much care is taken that not one crime in a thousand is punished. The law and the foxy criminal lawyer casts a wonderful mantel of protection about the law breaker from the time the crime is committed, that it is almost impossible for him to receive his just deserts. The old plea of insanity (?) is now much in vogue even after two examinations proved Wanderer sane, he is reprieved for sixty days to go through the same farce again, so that the chances are that this triple murderer is very likely to die of old age before the courts are through with him. Gene Geary, a double-dyed reckless and wanton murderer and general bad man, now that he is close to the rope, has an insanity plea again working for him, and so it goes from the plain home-made husband killer to the sneak thief. The majesty of the law protects them, while the victims are unthought of. There are thousands of people, law abiding and industrious, who every day take bigger risks of life than do the perpetrators of crime in Chicago; in fact, with the present saturnalia of crime we are all at the mercy of the unpunished slugger, bomb thrower and highwayman, who need have but little fear of punishment. It's a great old world!

"Come Out of the Kitchen"

COOKING at the table is ever so much cooler, cleaner and more appetizing. Whether it's a light, little one-dish luncheon, or a full meal for a hungry family, electricity cooks it to perfection at the dining table, on the porch or in the breakfast room of your kitchenette.

Armstrong Table Stove for $12.50
Famous electric grill that cooks three things at the same time with same heat. Aluminum utensils — skillet, griddle, deep broiler, stew pan, toaster and egg poacher. Waffle iron $4 extra. Buy this on your light bills. Deferred payment price, $13.25. Only $1.32 Down

Electric Toaster for $6.75
Surely you don't heat the oven to make toast these warm mornings! Breakfast is the coolest, quickest, easiest meal of the day when you make toast and coffee right at the table. Hotpoint or Universal Toaster. Buy it on your light bill. Only $1.00 Down

Electric Percolator for $10.00
Anybody in your house get their own breakfast? Here's the sure way to have a good cup of coffee, and it almost makes itself. Put coffee in the night before, add water next morning and turn on the current. Lowest prices in years; on payments, $10.60. Only $1.00 Down

Universal Ovenette for $7.00
Most meat substitutes for summer are baked dishes, but don't heat the big gas oven. Bake in the ovenette. Fits on any round grill, or on an electric disc stove, $7.00. Deferred payment price for the two $14.84. Only $1.48 Down

Waffle irons, grills, toaster stoves, chafing dishes and egg cookers also reduced.

Doings at Ogden Park

Water Carnival

The water carnival in the Ogden Park pool drew a large crowd of spectators in spite of the fact that the West Englewood Pageant of Progress parade was held on the same evening, July 28th. Thirty boys and girls took part. Two of the events that made an especial appeal to the audience were the hat race and the clothing race. Mr. Frank Ray, of Englewood, did novelty diving. Mr. Peter Vuzick, who is to do a dive of 120 feet at the pier, did a forty foot dive into the pool after an exhibition of fancy dives.

Girls' Swimming Meet

Ogden Park girls took second place in the South Park swimming meet for girls, losing first place to Sherman Park by just one point. The Ogden girls had the distinction of placing in every event at least once and in the fifty yard swim twice. Miss Mary Conley won the gold medal in the fifty yard breast stroke. Miss Berenice Vonder, Miss Anne McPadden and Miss Jeannette Miller each added to the total score.

Tennis

The Monroe Tennis club matched a six-man team against the Ogden Park Tennis club in six games of singles and three of doubles. The singles were evenly divided between the clubs but the visitors won all three of the double matches. The Ogden Park Tennis club is a live organization with a membership that is growing in numbers and in quality. An inclusive tournament for all comers, men and women, is now scheduled for September 3rd, 4th and 5th.

Sail Boats and Motor Boats

The preliminary try-outs held on Monday evenings are bringing in many boats. The Rev. A. S. Hodgson of the Marquette Baptist church will have a special try-out Thursday evening for thirty of the boys who have been attending the vacation school.

Some Hot Weather Statistics

Thirty-four thousand swims were given in the Ogden pool during the month of July. This helped a few people cool off a bit, as also did the 16,000 showers. There were 29,000 in the playgrounds. These figures do not include the people who just came in and enjoyed the park.

South Sea Island Exhibit at Hiram Kelly Library

The present wave of popular interest in the South Sea Islands and the fascination which those islands have held, has been rediscovered for America by Frederick O'Brien. He calls them the "Mystic Isles," and gives us vivid impressions of his life in Tahiti, the "merriest, most fascinating world." He tells of the songs he sang, the dances he danced, "the men and women, white and tawney, with whom he was joyous or melancholy."

The South Seas has been chosen as the scene and substance of many literary works. It was by experiment that Stevenson chose the South Seas, and by the same method Pierre Loti, Paul Gauguin, and Jack London have followed him. Herman Melville, an American sailor, who deserted his ship, was the first traveler in the South Seas, it seems, who wrote in the pure spirit of the amateur. His two stories are original masterpieces of South Sea literature. Then Charles Stoddard contributed a third masterpiece. After Melville and Stoddard come Stevenson, whose cruise among the islands resulted in his final residence in Samoa and in his writings on the South Sea Islands, "The Ebb Tide," "The Wrecker," "Island Nights Entertainments." Beatrice Grimshaw and Frederick O'Brien are the two outstanding present-time writers of the South Sea Islands. The themes peculiar to the South Seas is that of beauty, the beauty of the sea, the sky and the mountains, of sunshine and darkness and dawn. The islands, like the desert, seem most incredible, a miracle, the perfection of the native race.

A special exhibit of South Sea Island literature, artists, and writers, has been arranged at Kelly Library. Photographs of writers of the South Seas, interesting articles concerning writers and artists, and the fascinating tales by Grimshaw, O'Brien, Stevenson, Loti, Maugham, and—well, read this list of books and authors of South Sea Island literature, and get these books at the Hiram Kelly Library.

Flex-a-Tile Housetops are the beauty spots of the community

Small homes become more attractive when roofed with Flex-a-Tile asphalt shingles or rolls. Mansions have added beauty when crowned with Flex-a-Tiles. All buildings, new or old, are given long-time protection and the increased value of good appearance when Flex-a-Tiled. The initial cost is moderate, and durability makes economy certain.

ONE SOURCE— ONE PROCESS— ONE QUALITY—

Flex-a-Tiles are for roofing new buildings, re-roofing old buildings, or for application over the old shingles.

Over half a century of felt and roofing manufacturing experience is back of Flex-a-Tile Housetops. Materials and process are so controlled that the quality is always right. Felt, asphalt, saturation, weight and thickness are so carefully tested that the quality cannot vary.

The well-known Richardson felt from our own mills is saturated and coated with Flex-a-Tile natural asphalt scientifically processed in our refineries, and then the slate chips from our own quarries are rolled into the hot asphalt. This really enamels the surface with a natural colored green slate—or red if you prefer.

CONSULT YOUR DEALER

about Flex-a-Tiles, whether you intend to build or re-roof. See how uniform and beautiful they are — how easily applied — how reasonable in price.

Visit our mills and we will show you how quality is put into Flex-a-Tile Housetops for your service and satisfaction.

Dr. Brinkerhoff Corrects Us

Dear Mr. Sullivan:

While I know your intentions were good in the news item regarding gas main extensions you "slipped a cog," which places us in the position of being "bunk-shooters" of the worst kind.

I refer to the following in your article, "and the city refuses to pave any street on which the pipe has not been laid."

The contrary is true. It was only by using the proposed location of a park that an order for paving all of these streets last year was held up. The gas main argument was used by us but no consideration was given to it.

If those streets are paved without mains it will mean ruination of that district. Ten per cent of property has already been sold for taxes; 25% will go for taxes if this unfortunate thing is done.

Here is an example: Gas main now extends to 87th, half way between Ada and Throop. Suppose a man owning property at Loomis and W. 85th desires to build; his gas main extension would be as follows:

To Loomis st. in 87th.... 362 ft.
To W. 85th st. in Loomis 1,260 ft.
Total 1,622 ft.

If streets are paved without main being in the cost per foot for installing main would be $4.50 or $7,299.00, required as a deposit instead of $2,433.00 if put in now. I know it is asking a good deal to ask you to take the time to read the enclosed but as the total saving to property owners in our plan exceeds $100,000 I make the request. As a newspaper man you know that "some people believe everything they see in the paper," and for that reason we are very anxious that you get it straight.

Respectfully,
W. C. Brinkerhoff.

Eighteen years ago W. 87th st. was paved without gas mains from Throop to Ashland—there has not been a house built in that section of the street since.

Harvard

It requires an artist to make the bookings for a house so attractive that even the hottest weather does not keep the crowds away. Manager Coston has had this experience and now that the weather has modified, he is offering an especially good week of good pictures.

For today and tomorrow, matinee and evenings, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 5th and 6th, comes the sensational favorite of the season with Mildred Harris in the leading role. That mother love may triumph even when science has failed is the story told in "The Woman in His House," a remarkable photoplay which will be the attraction at the Harvard theatre today and tomorrow. It deals with the sacrifice and devotion which went to the care of a child who science had said would always be a hopeless cripple. An all-star cast appears in this picture, headed by Mildred Harris, who plays the role of the neglected wife and mother, and Ramsey Wallace, who has the part of the ever-ambitious husband and father, a great physician. Also Pathe News, the scream comedy, "Bang," and Saturday matinee, Eddie Polo in "Do or Die."

On Sunday, continuous from 2 to 11:30, Manager Coston offers that popular favorite of western plays, Tom Mix, in the very latest and best of his plays, in "The Big Town Round-Up," the attraction announced by the Harvard theatre. Tom Mix, the popular Fox star, appears as a young cattleman of Arizona who falls in love with a society belle—and of course wins her. But he wins only after a series of stirring adventures and narrow escapes that are said to hold the spectator spellbound throughout. Also a two-part Sunshine comedy, Pathe News and, matinee only, "The Purple Riders."

For Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 8th and 9th, matinee and night, William DeMille's wonderful production, "The Lost Romance." In the story, written by Edward Knoblock, a noted English playwright, and which was scenarized by Olga Printzlau, a young wife is on the point of deserting her husband for his best friend when the sudden disappearance of her child awakens her to the real ties that bind and a broader sense of the real meaning of life and love and romance. With the return of the child, all ends happily and the husband and wife find happiness where before there was discontent and restlessness. Also a good comedy, Burton Holmes travelogues and Topical Events.

Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 10th and 11th, a great double feature. Beautiful Wanda Hawley in "A Kiss in Time," and Buster Keaton in his new comedy, "The Goat." In "A Kiss in Time" Wanda Hawley plays the role of a young magazine illustrator, who is won in a single exciting afternoon by an author whose story she refuses to illustrate, on the grounds that its plot is utterly impossible. The author, greatly piqued, makes his plot come true, with the girl artist unconsciously playing the heroine's role. "The Goat" is an unusually funny two-part comedy and makes a continual laugh from start to finish. Also International News. Making a splendid week's program and one you should be sure to see.

Appreciation of the Potato.

In this country the chief and practically only interest in the potato today is as a vegetable for the table. We are greatly surpassed in this use by Europe, and Germany in particular. In that land the average annual per capita consumption was seven bushels in normal times, while our own was two and a half. The laborers of eastern Germany ate 17 bushels per annum. The other European countries are, as a rule, far above us and the diet of many an Irishman is said to be potatoes and spring water—for breakfast, dinner and supper. In addition to this direct consumption uses of the potato largely unknown to Uncle Sam are for flour starch, dextrine, glucose and alcohol.

7% AND SAFETY. Our first mortgages upon improved and producing farms have never lost a penny of interest or principal to our hundreds of satisfied customers. They are secured by a first lien upon indestructable property—agricultural land which yields annual and successive harvests which always find a ready market. These securities are non-fluctuating—in which respect they differ from a bond or a stock investment which is always affected by market conditions. Every farm mortgage which we make remains continuously under our supervision until it is paid off in full. Interest and principal are collected and remitted to you without charge. Such an investment is as simple as a savings account and pays over twice as much.

In a generation we have built up a reputation for care and conservatism which has brought us customers from over 30 states. We will be glad to send you our booklet and list of desirable mortgages without obligation.

Hamilton Park Branch Library

Here is a book which is a masterpiece of biography and will greatly influence the future art of that subject. Something new has been done in the treatment of a life and the biography of Queen Victoria has a well-deserved popularity.

Queen Victoria by Lytton Strachey

Having achieved an instant success with his "Eminent Victorians," published three years ago, Lytton Strachey has now undertaken to portray the most eminent of them all. The result is a book that everyone in England and America is reading or will read.

This book has succeeded and far surpassed Mrs. Asquith's book in popularity; it is found at every level; it is discussed by everyone and is discharged into the suburbs by every lending library.

In the long amazing career which we follow we are ever conscious of the Queen as a woman, of the social and political atmosphere, of the changes she lived through, and of her relations to these changes as head of the state.

Queen Victoria was pre-eminently in her later years a queen of things-as-they-had-been. It was in these later years that she wrote, "The queen is most anxious to enlist every one who can speak or write to join in checking this mad, wicked folly of 'Woman's Rights' with all its attendant horrors on which her feeble sex is bent in forgetting every sense of womanly feeling and propriety . . . God created men and women different—then let them remain each in their own position . . ."

Victoria had a strictly feminine sort of upbringing, says Mr. Strachey, in which little part was played, "by those two great influences without which no growing life can truly prosper—humor and imagination."

Not only is his story historically exact; it is picturesquely fascinating both in its motive and manner. Mr. Strachey has all his facts at his fingertips. He marshals them and presents their actions as if they were participants in a novel.

The library is open from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and from 1 p. m. to 9 p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. on Saturdays.

SERVICE FIRST

Make Telephone Calls to Near-by Towns by Number

The Illinois Bell Telephone Company has established "express" toll telephone service to seventy-seven places near Chicago, to and from which calls may be made in the same manner as Chicago city calls. These places include:

Aurora	Great Lakes	Matteson
Batavia	Hammond	North Chicago
Chicago Heights	Highland Park	Rockdale
East Chicago	Highwood	St. Charles
Elgin	Indiana Harbor	Steger
Gary	Joliet	Waukegan
Geneva	Lake Bluff	Wheaton
	Lake Forest

(A complete list of express points appears on page 13 of the Chicago telephone directory.)

To make a call to a telephone in any of these places, give the number to the operator and hold the line until the called telephone answers. If you do not know the number, ask your operator to connect you with "Information."

In calling these places do not ask for "Long Distance" unless you wish to talk to some particular person and to no one else.

Before you place a call for a point within fifty miles of Chicago consult the list of "express" points in the directory. By calling by number you will obtain quicker connection with the telephone wanted and the cost will be less.

In a great majority of cases either the particular person wanted is to be found at the called telephone or some one else can answer the call just as well.

Troubled with Warm Weather Washday Worries?

Laundress fail to show up?

Going out of town, and leaving Hubby behind?

Find warm weather washdays trying?

Here, then, is a sincere suggestion — investigate our family service.

You'll enthuse over it—we know you will.

At your request—a card or telephone call will do—we call for your family bundle.

First, we carefully sort everything — the light from the colored goods; the cottons from the woolens—sort everything into a number of classes.

Then we wash everything — each according to its needs —wash it by an easy, sousing, rinsing, clothes-conserving method, without rubbing or scrubbing — wash it in many baths of fresh, clean water.

And our drying, too, is good for the clothes—warm, pure air that leaves them as sweet-smelling as you could wish.

Such things as bath towels we dry fluffily; flat pieces, like tablecloths and bed linen we daintily iron for you; other things that require it, we starch.

Pieces like dresses and blouses that many housewives prefer to finish themselves, we leave for you to iron. We do fully 80 per cent of the heavy work, leaving to you but a few of the lighter details.

This Family Service is a washday help you'll welcome these warm weather days.

Telephone us today—have our driver call for your family bundle.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

In a basket one day Charley Lee
Took a kitten to Marry McGhee;
Said she to the lad,
Oh, my, I'm so glad—
I see you've a feline for me.

To kill time, try hard work.

Ceremonies may change, but true politeness is ever the same in all parts of the world.

The idealist politician fights friction, but the wise ones use soft soap.

Lots of men lose the thousands they have earned by running too hard after another hundred.

Some men who claim to be looking for "justice" will find it behind the bars, if they don't watch out.

The extremely short dresses are showing a lot of family skeletons also.

The sick men who would have been saved by beer, will have to get along somehow without it.

There are 104 men in Illinois to every 100 women. Grab your girl, boys, four of you will be left anyway.

When a young lady now speaks of her classic education, one does not know whether she refers to classic dancing or mere Latin and Greek.

Casey tells me that "Jazz" music "is nothin' boot old fashioned rag time, dolled up in short skirts, bobbed hair and depleted eyebrows."

Most of the men that visit the Jackson Park beach are mathematicians, at least they are studying "figures" very industriously, and are aided all in their power by the "figures."

This cutting down salaries of us overworked (?) people has to be stopped. I get word today that Mary Pickford and Charley Chaplin are no longer allowed more than a million a year.

Strange how some insurance companies act, the one that had a $10,000 policy on the life of Dr. Rowland, who was shot and killed by his wife last May, refuses to pay her the money. What's the use of killing a husband if you can't collect his insurance?

In the old days there was a justice of the peace in the territory known as "back iv the yards" that while he managed to hold office, was never known to pay a bill, and one day when a collector came into his office and "dunned" him for a bill of $10 he shouted to his special constable, "I'll fine him $15 for contempt of court, see that he receipts the bill, and fetch me the other $5 or lock him up."

Two of the oldest residents, John Burns the expressman and John Lanyon, the undertaker, were driving down Wentworth the other day behind Mr. Burns' team of mules, when Mr. Lanyon perpetrated the following: "I say Jack, this is peculiar, here is a pair of 'Jacks' driving a pair of mules." The old chaps are "Jack" to each other and have been for over forty years.

Tommy O'Connor didn't kill Officer O'Neill and the only reason he stayed away so long was fear that some wicked policeman might kill him. This is the sanguinary Tommy's defense as outlined when he was captured in a train robbery last week. He's safe all right if tried in Chicago.

Dr. Hepburn and M. D. Price came to a misunderstanding about awarding the Pageant Queen prize. Both insisted that it should have been for "manly beauty" when they would have been the only competitors.

An old southern judge lost a mule, for which he offered a reward. For days the whole neighborhood searched for that hybrid hoss without success. That reward was in demand. After everybody else had given up the idea of ever finding the animal the town no-account came up the street one day leading the long lost Aleck. "How in the name of the pink-toed prophet did you ever find him, Ben?" asked the astounded jurist. "Well, suh, Jedge, Ah'll tell yeh," said the hookworm one. "Ah jes' asked mase'f whur Ah would go ef Ah was a mewl. An' Ah went. An' he had."

Arizona Joe, the animal hunter and trainer, was telling an after-dinner story: "Old Bill had charge of the animal tent, and among his pets was a leopard, the only one with the show. He was a bad leopard, too, and gave Bill far more trouble than all the rest of the menagerie together. One day, when the show was in New Jersey, I went out to Chicago to arrange some business. While I was having dinner a telegram was handed me. It read: 'The leopard has escaped. Prowling about town. What shall I do?—Bill.' Bill was one of those fellows who had to have explicit directions to do anything, even in an emergency. He was always afraid of making a mistake. I rushed from the table and sent a reply. 'Shoot him on the spot,' I wired. Being unusually busy, I forgot all about the affair until about two hours later, when I returned to the hotel, and another telegram was handed me. It proved to be from careful, conscientious Bill, and asked: 'Which spot?'"

The Jolly G. A. R.'s

Geo. G. Meade Post No. 444 held a most successful reunion last Saturday afternoon, July 30th, in Jackson park, and the comrades with their families and friends and Meade Corps No. 136, W. R. C., Daughters of Veterans, Tent 20 and Tent 5, and Sons of Veterans, enjoyed the affair immensely. It was the largest crowd they had for years, everybody wore a broad smile and was happy. The weather was ordered for the occasion, as was all the good things to eat. There were several games and prizes for each game. The fat ladies' race was won by Mrs. O'Brien. Mrs. Kemp, winner of the guessing contest, carried home two other prizes. I'll bet she can beat you throwing horse shoes. The afternoon was all too short. After dark the crowd dispersed wishing Geo. G. Meade post would have another reunion picnic next Saturday afternoon.

Artford B. Carson's Return

Artford B. Carson, of 7200 Princeton ave., a special writer of a trade journal, who mysteriously disappeared from his home July 2nd, walked into his home and the arms of his devoted wife and little son "Jack," after twenty-six days' absence. Of the fifty cents he took away with him, he returned with twenty-six, spending the twenty-four for milk while on his wanderings and subsisting on vegetables and fruits from truck gardens and orchards in northern Indiana where he had been roaming in a state of amnesia. Besides being unkempt, thin and hungry, he was all right, but says that he had no control of his will or desire to return home, although he knew who he was and where he lived.

Englewood's Pageant Parade

The parade which closed the Pageant of Englewood Friday night was the greatest stunt ever pulled off in the town. Over 300 cars were in line including dozens of beautiful "floats" and most of the notables from Mayor Thompson and staff down to the white wings were among those present. The committee covered themselves with glory and the beautiful "queens" and their ladies in waiting made a galaxy of beauty that made Englewood proud. The business men were well represented and their handsomely decorated trucks and cars showed their interest in the big event.

Excursion and Annual Picnic

Excursion and annual picnic under the auspices of Englewood Council No. 324, K. of C., at Hudson Lake, Ind., Sunday, August 21st, 1921. Special trains leave 63rd st. station at 9:45 (Chicago time) via New York Central R. R. Adults, $1.75 round trip; children under 12 years, 75c round trip. Candidate for Harvest Queen

Miss Agnes Hart, money order clerk at Englewood postal station, is candidate for harvest queen at the big Brotherhood of American Yeomen picnic, to be held at Sharpshooter's park, Palos park, Sunday, August 21st. Ten local lodges of this society each have a candidate for queen, the basis of credits is based on number of tickets sold, each $1.00 ticket counting ten points. In case of a tie, equal honors will be conferred on both. Geo. D. Gordon, of 250 W. 61st pl., is director of publicity. The queen who is crowned will recieve solid gold lavallieres. The friends of Miss Hart are working hard to have her be the successful contestant.

Maxwell Sets New Record

The Maxwell stepped into the limelight this week by smashing the formore automobile record between Portland and Oakland, and establishing a new mark of 28 hours and 45 minutes, elapsed time, for the distance of 802 miles.

In spite of the average speed of better than thirty-three miles an hour, only two quarts of oil were used on the trip, and an economy mark of twenty-six miles to the gallon of gasoline was achieved.

To C. W. Niemeyer, a realtor of Salem, Ore., and his personally owned Maxwell goes the honor of setting the new record mark. A. R. Duncan, also of Salem, Ore., acted as observer on the trip, and times were officially checked by Portland newspapermen and Western Union officials.

The actual running time on the record run was 24 hours and 15 minutes.

Big Time at Meade Corps

Meade Corps No. 136, W. R. C., will hold president's night on Thursday evening, August 11th, at 8:15. There will be a regular meeting and some entertainment and refreshment served after. All W. R. C. members are invited to attend.

No Times Ads Wasted

The Englewood Times is distributed by U. S. letter carriers; every copy goes direct to the hands of a subscriber who pays for it and therefore values it. Every issue contains all of the clean local news of the territory between Garfield blvd. and south city limits, State st. west to Chicago Lawn, gathered by our staff of correspondents who are residents of the different districts, thus being able to print the news that interests the people in each district, and making the Times the only reliable means of reaching the real active people of the territory. There are no blank tickets in an Englewood Times ad., every one is read by people who have money to spend or they would not pay for the paper. We have advertisers who have carried advertising with us for over thirty years continuously. Why do you suppose they have done it? Whatever you want to dispose of, whether merchandise or real estate, have a room to rent or a flying machine to sell, want a maid or a wife, want to exchange a threshing machine for a cambric needle—you will find it profitable to advertise it in the wide awake columns of the Times. Try it.
